

Diversity Policy

Our diversity policy relates to the way that we treat, work with and value those who are different from ourselves. We recognize that those who are different from ourselves should be treated with respect, have something positive to offer and have an equal right to access resources and opportunities.